PROJECTS

Disrupting the Cycle of Blight and Homelessness

BEFORE

AFTER

HISTORY

The Beautification Council began in 2014 with a clear vision and mission to restore the quality of life to communities, combat the deterioration of cities through trash removal and litter abatement initiatives, and to disrupt homelessness by only hiring the unhoused and justice-impacted individuals.

"Building People & Beautifying Communities"

PASSION

• COMMUNITIES

Families desire and deserve to have a safe place to live.

• CITIES

Cities and rural areas are under siege with blight and homelessness.

• STATES

Counties are challenged with illegal dumping and homeless encampments.

"Through our agency we are we are addressing violence prevention, significantly significantly reducing illegal dumping and blight, while providing economic stability for the unhoused and justice-impacted making our cities beautiful!"

Ken Houston, Executive Director
Subject Matter Expert on Illegal Dumping and Homeless Encampments
